Boasting stunning views over the bowling green, this generously sized one-bedroom ground floor retirement property is larger than average and ideally located in the highly sought-after Southend Conservation Area. Within walking distance, you'll find a variety of excellent amenities, with bus links and train stations close by. Southend High Street is just a short stroll away, offering an array of restaurants, coffee shops, and shopping facilities. For leisure, the nearby Prittlewell Square provides a charming spot to enjoy a summer afternoon, while further picturesque views can be found along Southend Seafront and the delightful Cliff Gardens.

Inside, the property offers spacious accommodation throughout. A wide entrance hall provides ample storage, leading to a fantastic bay-fronted lounge/diner at the front of the property. This South-facing room spans 20' in width and is filled with natural light. The lounge/diner opens into a semi-open plan kitchen. To the rear, a generous double bedroom offers additional storage, accompanied by a three-piece bathroom.

Externally, residents benefit from communal off-street parking, access to a residents' lounge, and a courtyard garden. The property has been extensively improved by the current owner, including a new kitchen, new heaters, and a new water tank. Please note: there are three steps leading up to the front door.
