bailey of English Bicknor Castle. The main area of the castle is behind the property and can be viewed from the upper garden area and is under the control of English Heritage and so will always remain an impressive backdrop for the property. The gardens are on two levels having a summerhouse on each level and have lawned areas, mature shrubs and trees, seating areas which take advantage of the attractive aspect. There are two timber sheds and one brick shed.

The garden is visually interesting all year round with seasonal planting and all types of wildlife, a must to see.
