Guide Price - £260,000

Tenure – Freehold

Local Authority – Somerset Council

Summary

58 Parklands Way is a surprisingly spacious semi-detached family house. The property has been extended by the current owners to provide an impressive large open plan sitting room/dining area with roof windows and French doors to the garden. There is also a good size kitchen, three bedrooms and bathroom. The property occupies a corner plot with off road parking and single garage, there are gardens to the side and enclosed south west facing decked terrace.

Amenities

Somerton was the ancient Capital of Wessex in the 8th century and a former market town. It then later became the County town of Somerset in the 13th/14th Century. There is a good level of amenities including shops, bank, library, doctor and dentist surgeries, there are also several public houses, restaurants, churches and primary schools within the town. The Old Town Hall now houses the ACEArts Gallery and craft shop. A more comprehensive range of amenities can be found in the County town of Taunton to the west or Yeovil to the south. The mainline railway stations are located in Castle Cary, Yeovil and Taunton. The property is also well served by the A303 linking both central London and the South West, the M5 can be joined at junction 23.

Services

Mains water, drainage and electricity are all connected. Oil fired central heating to radiators. Council tax band C.
