Situated within the historic coastal settlement of Chiswell on the Isle of Portland, this property enjoys a unique position at the southern end of the world-famous Chesil Beach, part of the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site. The area is renowned for its dramatic seascapes, coastal walks, and rich maritime heritage. Chiswell forms part of a designated conservation area, ensuring that the distinctive character of its traditional buildings and narrow streets is carefully preserved, creating a charming and cohesive environment. The wider Isle of Portland provides a range of local amenities including independent shops, cafés, and everyday services, while the nearby seaside town of Weymouth offers a broader selection of shopping, dining, and leisure facilities, as well as a mainline rail connection to London Waterloo. The location is particularly well suited to those who enjoy outdoor pursuits, with sailing, fishing, and coastal walking all easily accessible, and Portland Bill lying to the south offering some of the most striking coastal views in the region.

The property is entered via a storm porch into a spacious and welcoming hallway, providing access to all principal ground floor rooms, with stairs rising to the first floor and a useful understairs cupboard. The well-presented sitting room enjoys a front aspect bay window, allowing plenty of natural light, and features a central electric fireplace with mantle and surround. To the rear, a second reception room provides a flexible space for dining or additional living, with French doors opening into the conservatory, which further extends the accommodation. The kitchen is thoughtfully designed and well equipped with modern compact composite, fitted wall and base level units with integrated appliances including washing machine, dishwasher, fridge/freezer, electric oven and induction hob, a second door offers direct access to the outside. A cloakroom with w/c and wash hand basin completes the ground floor layout and additional storage solutions.

The first floor comprises three bedrooms a shower room and an additional storage room. The principal bedroom is a well-proportioned room positioned at the front, featuring a vanity sink, a large bay window that fills the space with natural light, complemented by another good-sized double bedroom to the rear overlooking the garden. A further bedroom offers flexibility as a nursery, study, or guest room. The shower room is fully tiled and fitted with a contemporary suite, including underfloor heating, a walk-in shower, wash basin with vanity storage beneath, and WC. Occupying the top floor, the remaining bedroom is a spacious double room benefiting from its own ensuite shower room, along with further useful storage.

Externally, the rear garden is arranged over tiers, providing a private and attractive outdoor space ideal for relaxing or entertaining, and includes areas of patio and flower beds, a useful storage shed. The property also benefits from a single garage with power and lighting, along with off-road parking in front of the garage.
