A detached dormer bungalow with versatile accommodation, attractive grounds, garage and parking, peacefully situated within Goathland.

Quietly situated down a private lane within an easy walk of this popular moorland village, Little Garth comprises a well-presented detached dormer bungalow, with mature grounds, garage and parking. In all the property amounts to 1,470 square feet which is arranged as the following accommodation. Entrance porch, hallway and ground floor shower room. Breakfast kitchen with a rear porch opening out onto the garden to the rear. Large living and dining room and a conservatory. To the ground floor is a bedroom or study and the upstairs provides a further two double bedrooms and shower room.

Little Garth is situated to the bottom of a private lane just off Darncombe Lane. To the side is a short driveway leading to the detached single garage. The garden encircles the property to three sides and is a well-established space, stocked up with mature shrubs, a number of trees and flower borders.

LOCATION

Goathland is a most attractive and very popular Moorland village, within the North York Moors National Park, and perhaps best known as the location for the popular television drama "Heartbeat". The Beacon was used as a filming location for a number of episodes. The steam railway calls in at Goathland station, which is famous worldwide as the filming location of Hogsmeade Station in the Harry Potter films. The seaside resort of Whitby lies only 3 miles to the north and the market town of Pickering 11 miles to the south. The village is well placed for outdoor pursuits with miles of footpaths, bridleways and cycle paths leading out literally from the front door, the well-known Mallayan Spout Waterfall is just a short walk from the property.
