Very popular road steps away from the always in demand St Thomas More school and also short walking distance to Eltham high street and between New Eltham and Eltham mainline stations. This is a picture perfect period house with a stunning finish inside and out. The house is approached by a geometric tiled footpath and the house has a striking bare brick exterior. The accommodation includes, 2 large receptions, open plan kitchen diner with bi folding doors, 4 double bedrooms and large family bathroom. The decor is light and neutral and the kitchen and bathroom have a high end finish. The rear garden has a top quality patio with artificial grass and well established Japanese maple tree, with an ever changing appearance through the seasons. The property is offered to the market chain free.
