Platinum Collection

Marlborough Avenue, Hesse, HU13 0PN

A rare opportunity has arisen to acquire this wonderful and individual double-fronted detached residence, built circa 1920 and occupying a prime position on the ever-popular Marlborough Avenue, conveniently placed for the wide range of amenities that Hesse town centre has to offer.

This exceptional home is a true credit to its present owners, having been maintained and enhanced to an exacting standard, with no expense spared in the quality of presentation and finish throughout.

Standing within mature gardens extending to just under a quarter of an acre, the property enjoys a delightful and private setting, including a charming "secret" garden complete with summer house. A long private driveway provides ample off-street parking and leads to a carport and garage.

The well-proportioned accommodation briefly comprises: entrance porch leading to a generous entrance hall with large storage cupboard; spacious lounge; sitting room/library; breakfast kitchen; utility area and ground floor WC; and an impressive Orangery/Day Room, creating a superb additional reception space overlooking the gardens.

To the first floor, a striking feature landing leads to five bedrooms, the principal benefitting from fully fitted furniture, together with a family bathroom and separate WC.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the character, space and quality of this outstanding family home.
