Nestled within the highly sought-after Carte Place in the heart of Langdon Hills, this beautifully presented first-floor apartment enjoys a wonderfully tranquil setting, surrounded by attractive greensward and mature landscaping. It's the kind of location where birdsong replaces traffic noise, yet with Laindon railway station less than a mile away, your commute remains refreshingly straightforward. It really is a case of having the best of both worlds.

Better still, the property is offered with the significant advantage of no onward chain, meaning you can spend less time waiting for paperwork and more time deciding where the sofa will go.

Inside, the apartment continues to impress. A welcoming entrance hallway leads through to a bright and spacious lounge/diner, beautifully enhanced by a charming feature bay window that floods the room with natural light. Whether you're hosting friends, enjoying a quiet evening in or simply watching the seasons change outside, this is a room you'll genuinely look forward to coming home to.

The modern fitted kitchen has been thoughtfully designed with both style and practicality in mind, while the contemporary bathroom complements the home perfectly. Both bedrooms are generously proportioned, offering flexibility whether you're accommodating guests, creating a home office or simply appreciating the luxury of not having to compromise on space.

Outside, allocated parking means you'll never have to play the familiar game of "find a parking space" after a long day, while the 96-year lease provides further confidence for buyers looking for long-term peace of mind.

Apartments in Langdon Hills are always popular, but homes in locations like this rarely become available. Combining generous accommodation, peaceful surroundings, excellent commuter links and the convenience of being offered chain free, this is a home that's every bit as practical as it is desirable.

Be warned... once you've experienced the setting, you may find everywhere else feels just a little too busy.
