Tucked away within the well-regarded village of Ringstead, this beautifully presented cottage combines character, comfort and a thoughtfully finished interior, creating a home equally suited as a coastal retreat, permanent residence or holiday let investment.

The cottage has been carefully styled throughout, with a balance of period charm and contemporary touches. Features such as exposed beams, timber flooring, a stable door and a cast iron wood burner give the property warmth and personality, while the quality of finish adds a refined feel throughout.

The sitting room is welcoming and relaxed, centred around the wood burner and enjoying natural light from the front aspect. The kitchen has been fitted in a modern style with integrated appliances and timber work surfaces, flowing through to the dining room where a roof lantern and sliding doors create a bright and sociable space overlooking the garden.

Upstairs, the generous bedroom has a particularly characterful feel, with vaulted ceilings, exposed beams and a feature fireplace adding to the sense of charm. The bathroom has been finished to an impressive standard, complete with a freestanding bath and walk-in shower, creating a space that feels both practical and indulgent.

Outside, the cottage continues to impress with landscaped gardens to both front and rear. The enclosed rear garden offers a mix of patio and raised decking, ideal for outdoor dining and enjoying the quieter pace of village life. Off-road parking is also provided to the front.

Positioned just a short drive from the North Norfolk coastline, with the village pub, shop and surrounding countryside close at hand, this is a cottage that offers both lifestyle appeal and excellent holiday let potential.

Three words to describe the home would be cosy, quiet and charming.

Hunstanton

A VICTORIAN TOWN WITH WORLD-FAMOUS CLIFFS

Who wouldn't want a place by the sea? Hunstanton, a traditional, unspoilt coastal town, is perfect for a beach walk and a fish and chip supper. For residents, this Victorian gem offers even more.

Founded in 1846 by Henry Le Strange as a Victorian Gothic bathing resort, Hunstanton thrived with the railway from King's Lynn, becoming a top day-trip destination. Today, holidaymakers flock to Searles Leisure Resort, enjoy boat trips on the Wash Monster, fairground rides, and traditional arcades. The Princess Theatre, renamed in the 80s for Lady Diana Spencer, hosts live performances, films, and seasonal pantos. Golf enthusiasts can play mini-golf, pitch & putt, and the renowned Links course in Old Hunstanton.

Facing west across The Wash, "Sunny Hunny" is famous for its sunsets. Summer evenings are perfect for watching the sun set from the green, beach, or Victorian squares. Impressive Victorian and Edwardian properties line these squares, alongside contemporary homes, apartments, and senior living accommodations. Education options include a primary and secondary school (Smithdon High, a Grade II listed building), and Glebe House School, a co-educational prep school. Amenities feature a GP surgery, post office, leisure pool, and gym at The Oasis, overlooking the sea.

Local shopping includes Tesco, Sainsbury's, and a Lidl nearby in Heacham, along with a fantastic local greengrocer and award-winning deli. Dining options range from full English breakfasts to afternoon tea at Berni Beans and relaxing at wine bar Chives.

Hunstanton attracts young families, professionals, and retirees seeking a slower pace of life. Discover why this charming town is the perfect coastal retreat.
