Royston and Lund are delighted to bring to the market this two double bed apartment with ensuite and family bathroom features in West Bridgford. One of the large style apartments in the sought-after Hilton Grange development is located on the top floor with lift access and benefiting from a balcony which offers views over the communal gardens.

Hilton Grange is a popular complex for over 55's with convenient transport links, access to local shops and is being sold with no upward chain. The property is entered through an intercom communication system with communal areas, lifts that lead to the top floor and communal hallway leading to the front door. The entrance door opens to a generous reception hall with built in cupboards and storage, a spacious lounge dining room and kitchen area which has a balcony seating area overlooking the communal gardens. There are two double bedrooms have built in wardrobes with the principle bedroom benefitting from its own ensuite and then a separate family bathroom.

The Hilton Grange complex benefits from a range of facilities such as plentiful parking, laundry, computer room, lounge, gym, guest room and a variety of social events.
