Property Description

Situated in one of the most highly desirable locations that Southampton has to offer, Connells are pleased to bring to market this stunning two bedroom lower-floor apartment in the highly sought after development of Grenville Court. This property would make an ideal first time buyer purchase and benefits from a spacious living/dining area which offers plenty of space for entertaining both family and friends, a separate kitchen, two double bedrooms with ample space and a three piece bathroom suite. This includes a bath with attached shower, washing hand basin and a toilet. There is ample built-in storage throughout the property, this means the property can stay clean and clutter-free.

Other benefits to this fantastic home are gas central heating, double glazed windows allowing plenty of natural light, ample storage and private and allocated parking beneath the development. A viewing is highly recommended to truly appreciate the accommodation we have on offer here on Silverdale Road.
