12 Almond Road

Bicester

This impressive family home is set on a generous, secluded plot within walking distance of Bicester town centre. Originally built by a local builder as his own residence, it offers spacious and well-planned accommodation, ideal for family living.

The ground floor includes a light-filled south-facing conservatory, linked living and dining rooms, a stylish kitchen with oak herringbone flooring, a study, cloakroom, and utility room. Upstairs are four good-sized bedrooms, including a main suite with en-suite and a modern family bathroom.

Outside, the beautifully landscaped garden features a heated swimming pool, patio, pond, vegetable planters, and a small orchard with summer house.

A detached double garage includes a self-contained annexe above, currently let for additional income. The home benefits from recent energy upgrades including an air source heat pump (EPC B), and has planning permission for a single-storey extension. Excellent local amenities, schools, and rail links to London and Birmingham are nearby.
