This beautifully presented Victorian semi-detached home on Frenches Road perfectly combines period charm with modern style. Finished to an exceptional standard throughout, the house offers generous, well-balanced accommodation across three floors, making it ideal for growing families or anyone seeking character and space in a central Redhill location.

The ground floor flows effortlessly from a welcoming bay-fronted living room with feature fireplace into a stylish dining area, both rich with natural light and warmth. The kitchen has been thoughtfully designed with sleek cabinetry and integrated appliances, opening into a bright conservatory that serves as a lovely breakfast area or garden room with views onto the private rear garden.

Upstairs, the first floor provides two elegant double bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom finished to a high specification. The top floor continues the home's sense of calm and refinement, featuring two further bedrooms – one a generous double with eaves storage, the other a charming single that could also serve as a home office or nursery.

Every detail has been carefully considered, from the crisp décor and tasteful fittings to the blend of classic and contemporary touches that make this house feel both timeless and ready to move into.
