Kedington

Kedington is a conveniently positioned, attractive and well served Suffolk village. The beautiful 14th century Grade I Listed Church of St Peter and St Paul. Suffolk House was once home to the celebrated Victorian poet/playwright Herman Merivale. The village has excellent facilities including local supermarket open long hours with newspaper delivery service available. Award winning butchers, superb Chinese with takeaway/delivery. Two public houses, horse riding facilities, numerous public amenity meadows & river walks in this child & dog friendly village, with a very large recreation ground. Well renowned primary school with 2 prep schools at nearby Barnidiston & Stoke By Clare. Newmarket, Bury St Edmunds, Saffron Walden & Cambridge are approximately 30 minutes away, with the University city of Cambridge approximately 20 miles away. There are mainline rail stations to London at Audley End (around 16 miles), Whittlesford Parkway, Shelford and Cambridge. London Stansted airport is around 30 miles away.

OUTSIDE, GARAGE & DRIVE

To the rear, the garden is arranged across gentle levels, creating distinct and usable areas. A central lawn is neatly enclosed by timber fencing, with a pathway leading through a timber pergola and up to a further seating area. This upper section provides a pleasant space for outdoor furniture and enjoys a good degree of privacy, with established planting and fencing to the boundaries. A side gate gives convenient access through to the driveway.

A pathway continues around the house, linking the garden spaces and providing access back to the main accommodation.

To the front, the property is approached via a resin driveway providing off-road parking for a couple of vehicles and leading directly to the garage. The garage benefits from an electric up-and-over door, with power and lighting connected, and a personal door opening into the rear garden. The front garden is laid mainly to lawn with planted borders, giving the house an open and welcoming approach.
