The Land

Lot 1: 7.4 acres of permanent pasture in two enclosures. There is a wooden portable field shelter comprising two loose boxes situated within Lot 1, close to the council road which will be left for the successful purchaser.

We understand that Lot 1 adjoins the footpath at its north east side, in addition to its road access at its southern point. It should be noted that we understand mains water supply is within the council road adjacent to Lot 1 on its southern side and there is also an electricity pole within Lot 1 for which a wayleave is received.

Lot 2: 9.2 acres to the south west of the hamlet of Leighland with road access on its western side.

Directions

From Washford or Roadwater, follow the minor council road in a southerly direction and the hamlet of Leighland will be found on the east side, using the postcode TA23 0RW.
