This well-loved three-bedroom semi-detached home sits in one of Northwood's most sought-after roads and is ready for its next chapter. The property has been cared for with real pride of ownership, offering comfortable and characterful living space throughout. Outside is where this home truly shines. The rear garden is a genuine standout, beautifully established and full of colour. The property benefits from off-road parking and a garage, a combination that is increasingly hard to find.
