An impressive and well-presented three-bedroom end-of-terrace town house, built in 2003 and situated on the northern periphery of the highly desirable village of Fishbourne.

Offering bright and airy accommodation arranged over three floors, the property also benefits from a pretty south-facing rear garden and an allocated carport.

The front door opens into a welcoming entrance hall with a cloakroom to one side. To the rear of the property, the spacious south-facing sitting room spans the full width of the house, creating a wonderfully light living space with French doors opening directly onto the garden.

The kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with a comprehensive range of floor and wall-mounted units complemented by contrasting worktops. Integrated appliances include an electric double oven, gas hob and cooker hood, with ample space for informal dining.

On the first floor are two well-proportioned bedrooms together with the family bathroom, which features Jack-and-Jill access from both the landing and the second bedroom, providing flexibility for family living or guests.

Occupying the entire second floor, the principal bedroom suite offers an excellent sense of privacy and includes a generous double bedroom and an en-suite shower room.

Outside, the attractive south-facing rear garden has been thoughtfully landscaped with a paved terrace, an area of lawn, mature and well-stocked borders, and a useful garden shed. A gated rear access leads to the courtyard, where the property benefits from an allocated carport, being the first carport on the right.

This delightful home combines spacious, versatile accommodation with an excellent village location, making it an ideal choice for families, professionals or those seeking easy access to Chichester and the surrounding coastline.
