Location

Hulver is a small rural village in Suffolk, offering a calm and unspoilt countryside setting. The surrounding area is made up of open fields and quiet lanes, giving it a secluded feel that appeals to those looking for a slower pace of life. The village has a traditional character, with a mix of period cottages and simple homes that reflect its long-standing history. Despite its peaceful nature, Hulver is within easy reach of nearby towns such as Beccles and Lowestoft, making everyday essentials and facilities accessible without being in a busy location. The countryside around the village is well-suited to outdoor activities, with plenty of routes for walking and cycling through the surrounding landscape. The property is set within the Suffolk Coast & Heaths National Landscape (Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty), an area renowned for its unspoilt scenery, diverse wildlife and exceptional natural beauty, offering a truly idyllic rural lifestyle while remaining within easy reach of nearby market towns and the Suffolk coastline.

Outside

The property sits within approximately 3.7 acres of picturesque grounds, offering a wonderful balance of maintained gardens and natural meadowland. To the front, a large shingle frontage creates an impressive approach, complemented by a well-kept lawn with established plants and shrubs, while a pathway leads around to the rear gardens and outbuildings with gated access to the wider land.

Immediately behind the property, the main rear garden is beautifully maintained, featuring a generous shingle area ideal for outdoor seating and dining, a neatly kept lawn, well-planted beds and borders with mature plants, shrubs and fruit trees, and raised planters perfect for growing your own fruit and vegetables. This section of the garden is fully enclosed from the wider land, making it suitable for pets, with gated access through to the remaining grounds.

Beyond this lies stunning wild meadowland with scenic walking areas, mature trees and two freshwater ponds that attract an abundance of wildlife, with muntjac deer often spotted. A summer house overlooks the pond area, providing a peaceful place to relax.

The property benefits from two separate driveways, one serving the house and the other providing dedicated access to the workshop and business area. Additional outbuildings include a wood shed with a stable-style door, a powered garden shed with windows and shelving, and a substantial workshop comprising two large working rooms with power, lighting, UPVC double glazed windows, large double doors, a kitchen area, toilet and wash basin, making it ideal for business or practical use.
