Belper, DE56 1DA

Offers Over £550,000

An Exceptional Late Victorian Five-Bedroomed Family Residence of Outstanding Character and Historical Significance.

Rarely does a property of this calibre come to the market. Tucked away on a quiet cul-de-sac yet perfectly positioned within the heart of Belper Town Centre, The Laurels is a magnificent late Victorian family home built in 1885 and lovingly preserved to retain an extraordinary wealth of original period character throughout.

From the moment you step through the traditional painted oak door into the reception hall — with its stunning original Minton tile flooring and magnificent original Victorian spindle staircase — it is clear this is no ordinary home. Beautifully presented throughout, the well-appointed accommodation offers exceptional space and versatility across three floors, combining authentic period charm with the comforts expected by a modern family.

The generous sitting room features a walk-in bay window and open Victorian fireplace, whilst the formal dining room provides an elegant entertaining space. The impressive 19'3" dining kitchen is fitted with granite worktops, a Belfast sink, range cooker, and integrated appliances. A utility room with pantry and guest WC complete the ground floor, along with a traditional Victorian cellar and coal shoot! To the first floor, four well-proportioned bedrooms are served by a family bathroom boasting a freestanding roll top bath on claw feet, thermostatic shower enclosure and Edwardian-style radiator. The second floor reveals a versatile dressing room — formerly part of the original servants' quarters — and a stunning 19'11" bedroom/attic with Dormer window enjoying fine rooftop views and a characterful half-moon arch window overlooking the garden.

Outside, the property enjoys generous off-road parking a detached garage, a sheltered courtyard terrace and a beautiful mature garden with well-stocked established borders.

History

Historical Interest

The house was built for Samuel Edwards in 1885. Samuel was a local man whose family were involved in several enterprises locally. Records show a coal company located off Derby Road, Belper in the goods yard to the original train station before this was relocated, the access road is still called Goods Road. A hosiery factory which fronted both King Street and Campbell Street as far as the present day Masonic Hall and Edwards the Printers a stationary shop on King Street having a printing works in the yard.

Forward

This truly is a once in a lifetime investment opportunity having had only two family owners in the past 140 years which is very rare. The size and scale of the residence can only be truly appreciated when viewed.
