Just Property are delighted to bring to the market an opportunity to purchase this well presented two bedroom period cottage close to the village of Westfield, on the outskirts of Hastings close to The Ridge, Conquest hospital, the town centre and also the seafront, promenade and the Old Town.

This charming property believed to be part of the former coach house and stables of the fantastic Hazel Court dating back to the mid 1800's, is situated in a beautifully quiet, rural spot yet only minutes away from the historic town of Hastings with its comprehensive range of shopping & recreational facilities and mainline railway station.

This freehold cottage occupies a corner of the wonderful former coach house benefits from a small private courtyard and enjoys use of the extensive shared gardens including woodland and a lawned area of Hazel Court without fees.

The property benefits from well proportioned accommodation including entrance hallway with WC, a principle bedroom with balcony, fitted kitchen, modern bathroom suite and large lounge/dining area. In addition the property features double glazed Georgian style windows throughout and gas central heating. The property is in excellent condition and is a credit to the current owners.

An internal viewing is strongly recommended to appreciate this character home, please call Just Property on 01424 444100 for more details and to arrange a viewing.
