Redruth Highway, Redruth, TR15 1RQ

Tucked away in a small road, this detached property has much to commend it and would make an ideal family home. To the first floor there are four good sized bedrooms together with a separate dressing room. The master bedroom has the bonus of an ensuite and there is also a family bathroom. On the landing a ladder leads to boarded storage facilities in the loft. To the rear elevation two of the bedrooms have lovely views over open fields. To the ground floor there is a hallway and a cloakroom, a lounge overlooking the front elevation with double doors leading through to a substantial kitchen/diner fitted with plenty of units which in turn leads through to a good sized rear conservatory. All the ground floor rooms have laminate flooring in one colour giving a seamless feel throughout. To the side there is a utility room, further storage in the rear hall and there is also a boot room with a shower, currently used to wash the dogs. Internal access is given to the garage ideal for a small vehicle with an electric roller door. To the front there is parking for five to six vehicles and to the rear there is a lovely terraced enclosed and thoughtfully laid out garden with a patio immediately to the rear of the property. A storage shed is provided and at the end of the garden there is the added bonus of a work from home office/games room/hobbies room being of generous proportions and we feel this is a good asset to the property with a corner wood burner. Located in a popular area near open land, it gives easy access to Mount Ambrose with a post office/general store, a cycle shop, a garage and a public house. Access is given to Redruth town and also the A30. Portreath Beach can be reached in under fifteen minutes by car and Perranporth and the city of Truro can both be reached in around twenty minutes or less.
