Briggate Crescent

Whittlesey, PE7 1DN

Briggate Crescent in Whittlesey, Peterborough offers a fantastic opportunity to create a personalised home, with this detached bungalow coming to market with no forward chain and probate already granted. Tucked away in a peaceful cul-de-sac, the property provides generous living space that includes three reception rooms and a converted garage, giving plenty of flexibility for modern living. Although the bungalow is in need of renovation, it features an enclosed rear garden and sits within close proximity to Whittlesey Town Centre, making it ideal for buyers looking for convenience, potential, and a project they can truly make their own. Probate has been granted

Set within a quiet cul-de-sac close to Whittlesey town centre, this detached bungalow on Briggate Crescent offers a surprisingly spacious and flexible layout, ideal for buyers looking to renovate and tailor a home to their own style. The property opens with an entrance porch leading into a generous lounge-diner, creating an inviting focal point for everyday living. From here, the accommodation flows into a well-proportioned kitchen and breakfast room, positioned at the heart of the home with direct access to the rear garden. A central hallway connects the living spaces to three bedrooms, each offering its own character and potential. The master bedroom sits to the front, while two further bedrooms provide options for family, guests, or home-office use. A shower room serves the bedrooms, conveniently located off the hall. To the rear, a charming garden room offers an additional reception space, ideal for relaxing while overlooking the enclosed garden. Completing the layout is a separate dining room, enhancing the home's versatility for entertaining. With a thoughtful, flowing design and multiple reception rooms, the bungalow lends itself perfectly to modern reconfiguration or sympathetic improvement. Combined with its peaceful setting and proximity to local amenities, Briggate Crescent presents an excellent opportunity to create a bespoke home in a sought-after location.
