Situation

The property sits at the heart of the coastal village of Bossiney, just east of Tintagel. Within Bossiney and within easy walking distance is Bossiney beach. Nearby Tintagel provides a number of attractions including Tintagel Castle with the stunning new footbridge to provide access. In Tintagel is a range of social, commercial and shopping facilities including popular public houses, primary school, doctor surgery, visitor centre and a range of shops.

Nearby Camelford provides an excellent golf course and the property is equidistant between the town's of Launceston, Bude and Wadebridge all providing more extensive range of facilities.

All around Tintagel are beauty spots and areas of outstanding natural beauty. To the west are Trebarwith and Tregardock beaches, to the east Boscastle, High Cliff, Strangles and Crackington Haven beaches. Inland is the rugged beauty of the wide open spaces of Bodmin Moor ideal for walking and riding and rising up to nearby Roughtor and Brown Willy Tors. Further afield to the west is the renowned surfing, sailing and water sports tourist location surrounding the Camel Estuary including Padstow, Polzeath and Rock. To the east is the secretive Tamar Valley steeped in 18th Century mining history, renowned for Salmon fishing and emptying into Plymouth Sound with all its yachting activities.

This substantial detached coastal residence offers well-proportioned and versatile accommodation designed to showcase its sweeping 180-degree sea views. The main house features three generous double bedrooms, each arranged to maximise natural light and the outstanding coastal outlook. An adjoining studio annex provides excellent flexibility for multi-generational living, guest accommodation or a dedicated workspace, while the double garage adds valuable storage and practical convenience.

The property benefits from ample built-in storage and a private driveway with parking for five or more vehicles, together with side access to the rear garden. Its peaceful coastal position is complemented by a level walk to the village centre and its amenities, offering both tranquillity and a strong sense of community.

The grounds are both expansive and private, creating an exceptional setting for outdoor living and relaxation. The large front driveway provides generous parking and access to the rear garden, which is enclosed by a traditional Cornish stone wall. The garden is predominantly laid to lawn and interspersed with established perennials and mature shrubs, offering a colourful yet low-maintenance landscape. A former allotment area at the far end has been incorporated into the main garden, providing further scope for cultivation or recreation. All outdoor spaces are orientated towards the sea, ensuring the panoramic views can be enjoyed from every aspect.

The double garage is equipped with power and lighting, featuring one manual up and over door and one electric door with remote control.

Overall, this impressive coastal home combines privacy, practicality and uninterrupted sea views, offering generous accommodation, flexible living options and beautifully maintained grounds within easy reach of village amenities.
