Set within an elevated position opposite Christchurch, Aston Lodge is an exceptional Grade II listed Regency home which enjoys an enviable position with far reaching views across Princes Road Bowling Club, the Bristol Channel, Sand Point and Steep Holm Island. Beautifully renovated by the current owners to an exacting standard and retaining many original features including fireplaces to all main rooms, ornate cornices, ceiling roses, panelled doors and bell pulls, the property effortlessly blends historic character with refined contemporary living, creating a home of remarkable style, comfort and lifestyle appeal.

Approached beneath a classic portico, the front door opens into a striking and beautifully proportioned hallway that sets the tone for the accommodation beyond. The drawing room is a magnificent space, centred around a bay window that frames the breathtaking outlook. Period detailing is complemented by stripped floorboards, two fireplaces and a wood burning stove, creating both grandeur and warmth. The kitchen diner is truly outstanding, designed to the highest specification for modern living and entertaining. An electric Aga sits alongside sleek quartz worktops and integrated Neff appliances, combining practicality with understated luxury. A utility room/WC completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, four generous double bedrooms provide elegant and flexible accommodation. The principal bathroom is exquisitely appointed, featuring a freestanding bath, while a second lavish bathroom offers both a bath and a king size shower. A useful cellar adds further practicality and storage.

Outside, the gardens are as impressive as the interior. The south facing front garden has been professionally landscaped to create a tranquil and visually striking setting, with a square lawn, immaculate borders, a waterfall feeding a pond and a terrace immediately outside the house, all perfectly positioned to take in the sweeping coastal and open views. The rear garden, also professionally landscaped, is laid to patio and designed for effortless entertaining. A beautiful stone wall encloses the property, enhancing both privacy and character, while a parking space at the rear, accessed via Park Road, provides valuable convenience.

The location offers an exceptional lifestyle, combining coastal beauty, green open spaces and architectural heritage. With Christchurch on the doorstep, the bowling club opposite and panoramic views stretching across the channel, this is a setting that feels both peaceful and inspiring. Nearby amenities, independent shops and cafés on Hill Road, and access to scenic walks along the coastline create a relaxed yet vibrant atmosphere, making this a home perfectly suited to those seeking elegance, character and a truly special place to live.
