Ludbourne House South Street, Sherborne DT9 3LT

'Ludbourne House' is a distinguished and substantial Grade II listed townhouse, extending to approximately 2,349 sq ft, constructed of elegant natural stone beneath a traditional Welsh slate roof. Impeccably restored, the property effortlessly marries refined period architecture with generous proportions and exceptional contemporary finishes. Grand ceiling heights, full-height bay windows and classic sash windows bathe the interiors in natural light, creating a wonderfully airy and sophisticated atmosphere. This exceptional residence, rarely available to the market, has undergone an extensive and carefully executed renovation, including a partial rebuild, all completed to an exacting standard. Every element has been thoughtfully curated to preserve the home's heritage while introducing the very best in modern design and specification. At the heart of the house lies a magnificent dining hall, centred around a sweeping staircase of elegant design, forming a striking architectural statement. To one side, French doors open into a beautifully appointed sitting room, featuring a bespoke stone fireplace with a living flame gas fire and handcrafted fitted bookcases, creating a space that is both inviting and effortlessly stylish. To the opposite side, the kitchen has been designed to the highest specification, offering a sleek and contemporary aesthetic, complete with an electric four-oven Everhot range cooker and premium Miele integrated appliances. A discreet cloaks cupboard provides practical additional storage. The house benefits from two staircases, with the north-east wing extension providing two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a luxurious shower room. The ground floor further offers a cloakroom and a generously sized utility room, which in turn leads to the integral garage.

The principal staircase rises to the main accommodation, where the impressive principal suite comprises a spacious double bedroom, extensive fitted wardrobes and an elegantly appointed en suite bathroom featuring both bath and walk-in shower. A further double bedroom on this level also benefits from a private en suite shower room and comprehensive built-in storage. Comfort is ensured via gas-fired underfloor heating throughout the ground and first floors.

Externally, the property enjoys a beautifully enclosed, full-width courtyard garden with a desirable southerly aspect. Bordered by high natural stone walls and enhanced by pleached hornbeam trees, the setting offers a high degree of privacy and seclusion. A thoughtfully designed U-shaped raised bed, planted with a variety of colourful perennials, is overlooked by a stone-flagged veranda, accessed directly from the rear hall via French doors.

A secure wrought iron pedestrian gate and pathway lead to the front entrance, while electrically operated wrought iron gates provide vehicular access to the private parking and substantial garage. The driveway is shared with a small number of neighbouring residences, forming part of the exclusive Ludbourne Hall enclave, discreetly situated to the rear.

The house is in the beating heart of the amazing town centre of Sherborne with its coveted high street, buzzing, popular out-and-about culture, boutique stores, organic bakeries, coffee shops, restaurants, gastro-pubs and farmers market. Sherborne also boasts the breath-taking Sherborne Abbey building, Alms Houses, two historic castles and world-famous Sherborne private schools. This house is a very short, level walk from the mainline railway station to London, making London Waterloo in just over two hours directly. There are lovely walks only moments from the front door at Purleigh, the Water Meadows, the Sherborne Castles and Pageant Gardens. Sherborne has recently won the award for the best place to live in the South West by The Times 2024. It also boasts 'The Sherborne' - a top class, recently opened arts and conference centre plus superb restaurant.
