Summary

Occupying a prestigious position within the historic former stable block and coach house of Bretby Park, this beautifully reimagined home has been comprehensively renovated to an exceptional standard. Accessed through the striking gated Clock Tower, the property immediately impresses with its unique setting, elegant presentation and thoughtfully designed accommodation.

The heart of the home is a stunning bespoke kitchen featuring quartz worktops, integrated appliances and bi-fold doors opening onto the landscaped garden, perfectly complementing the spacious living room with its feature media wall and uninterrupted views across neighboring fields. Flexible ground floor accommodation includes a study and fourth bedroom, while the luxurious principal suite enjoys French doors with glass balustrade, a bespoke dressing area and a beautifully appointed en-suite. Two further double bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom complete the first floor.

Outside, the landscaped rear garden has been designed for both entertaining and relaxation, while allocated parking within the private courtyard adds further convenience. There is also exciting potential to extend above the kitchen to create a fifth bedroom, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

Combining the charm of a historic conversion with the finish of a luxury contemporary home, this is a truly outstanding residence in one of South Derbyshire's most exclusive and sought-after developments.

F&C

The Location

Nestled within beautiful open countryside, Bretby Mews enjoys an idyllic semi-rural setting surrounded by rolling fields and scenic walking routes, whilst remaining exceptionally well connected. The historic village of Bretby offers an enviable lifestyle with nearby attractions including Burton-on-Trent Golf Club, a popular garden center and the National Trust's Calke Abbey. Foremark Reservoir and Staunton Harold Reservoir are also within easy reach, providing excellent opportunities for walking, cycling and waterside leisure.

The nearby town of Burton upon Trent offers an extensive range of shopping, leisure and dining facilities, with the city of Derby also conveniently accessible. The area is particularly well regarded for its excellent schooling, including the prestigious Repton School, Repton Prep, St Wystan's School in Repton and Dame Catherine Harpur's School in Ticknall.

For commuters, the property offers superb access to the A50, A38 and M1 motorway network, providing excellent links to Derby, Nottingham, Birmingham and beyond.

From the A511 Burton Road, turn into Geary Lane and continue to the junction with Mount Road. Turn right and proceed down the hill. At the left-hand bend, turn right onto the private, unadopted driveway leading to Bretby Mews. Continue along the driveway, where the development will be found on the left-hand side, accessed via the impressive gated Clock Tower entrance.

Accommodation

Entrance Hall

12'9" x 6'10" (3.91 x 2.10)

A contemporary entrance door opens into an impressive and welcoming reception hall, setting the tone for the quality found throughout the home.
