What the owner says:

"We were drawn to this flat because of the light, location and garden. Light and air literally floods in from three aspects. The garden is brilliant and feels really open as you're not overlooked by properties behind. The place is cosy in the winter and cool in the summer, with beautiful sunsets in the evenings and the occasional visit from a squirrel. The street has a proper community vibe with lovely neighbours all around, and we rarely hear any noise. The location is perfect for walking to the beach, Laines and train station with a lovely park, pub, coffee shop, nursery and school all on the doorstep."
