Mill Road, West Mersea, Colchester

An exciting opportunity to acquire this detached three-bedroom bungalow, occupying a substantial plot in the highly sought-after coastal village of West Mersea. Offering excellent potential to modernise, extend or redevelop (subject to the necessary planning permissions), this property presents an ideal purchase for those looking to create their dream home.

Situated on the popular Mill Road, the property enjoys a convenient location within easy reach of West Mersea's local shops, amenities, schools and waterfront.

The bungalow offers well-proportioned accommodation throughout, with three bedrooms, spacious living accommodation and excellent scope for improvement to suit a purchaser's individual style and requirements.

Externally, the property sits on a generous wrap-around plot with mature gardens providing ample outdoor space and fantastic potential for landscaping or further development, subject to the relevant consents. A detached garage, together with off-street parking for one vehicle, further enhances the property's appeal.

Properties offering this level of potential on such a generous plot are rarely available, making this an excellent opportunity for developers, investors or buyers seeking a home they can personalise in one of West Mersea's most desirable locations.
