Welcome to Dunlop Road, Tilbury – where space, style and convenience meet in one seriously impressive four-bedroom extended end-of-terrace that’s ready to steal the spotlight on your property feed.

Step inside and you’ll instantly see why this home deserves its own highlight reel. The beautifully extended open-plan kitchen, dining and lounge space is the true heart of the home — designed for modern living, entertaining and everything in between. Whether it’s weekend brunch, movie nights, or hosting friends who “just popped over”, this sociable space effortlessly adapts.

The kitchen blends sleek practicality with plenty of workspace, flowing seamlessly into the dining and lounge areas so everyone stays connected. Natural light pours in, creating a bright, uplifting atmosphere that feels both stylish and welcoming.

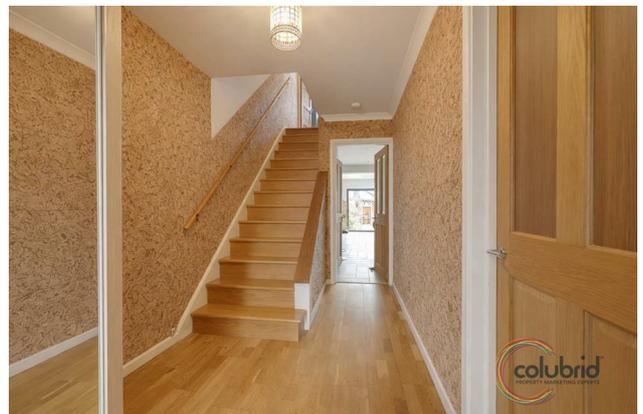

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with four well-proportioned bedrooms, offering flexibility for growing families, home offices, creative spaces or that dream walk-in wardrobe moment. Every room feels thoughtfully arranged, giving the home a sense of comfort and versatility.

Outside, the generous rear garden is a hidden gem — perfect for summer BBQs, children’s playtime, gardening projects or simply enjoying a well-earned evening unwind.

Practical features complete the package, including off-street parking and a ground floor WC, making day-to-day living as easy as it is enjoyable.

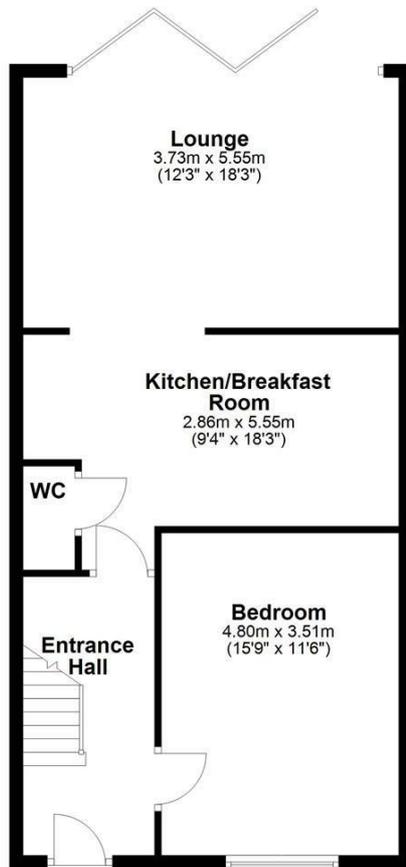

And the location? A commuter’s dream. Tilbury train station is just moments away, whisking you directly to London Fenchurch Street — meaning city access without the city price tag. Add to that easy access to Tilbury Town Centre, the A13 and M25, and you’ve got connectivity sorted.

Stylish, spacious and superbly located, this Dunlop Road home isn’t just somewhere to live — it’s somewhere to love.
