Accommodation is over three floors plus a cellar/snug, and includes five bedrooms, four bathrooms and three reception rooms. On the ground floor the reception hall leads to an elegant drawing room with log burning stove and a Smallbone kitchen/dining room located to the rear with a door out to the walled garden, A large utility/boot room and cloakroom complete the ground floor accommodation.

On the first floor is the spacious and elegant sitting room which would equally serve as a fifth bedroom, plus a further double bedroom and a family bathroom. To the rear is the master bedroom suite complete with large dressing room and bathroom, which looks out over the courtyard area of the garden.

The remaining two bedrooms are found on the second floor. The bedroom to the front is accompanied by a large dressing room and en-suite shower room, while the rear bedroom boasts a fantastically indulgent en-suite bathroom.

Outside, the walled garden has been designed by three-times Chelsea Gold medal winner Jacque Gordon and is a pretty and atmospheric space in which to relax, dine and entertain, complete with lighting, a water feature and a commissioned slate sculpture. Off-road parking for two cars is via a gate on Union Street.
