LOCATION

Quay Cottage lies in a coveted position within the Tamar Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and on the western edge of a Site of Special Scientific Interest (noted due to the rare species of fauna or flora it contains). The property is in a perfect location for those with boating interests with the 35' long private quay enabling access to the water for between 2 to 3 hours each side of high tide (depending on tide heights) with the River Tamar providing a total of 44 miles of navigable tidal waterways (including tributaries) (source Inland Waterways Association) with many sheltered anchorages together with beauty spots and places of historical interest accessible by tender, paddleboard or kayak.

The Tamar Valley is renowned for its mild and sheltered climate and is popular with nature lovers and artists due to the abundance of natural flora and fauna, the valley is steeped in history and has UNESCO World Heritage Status.

St Mellion has a primary school (rated "Good" by Ofsted) and church, it is also home to the St Mellion International Golf Resort which offers unique 4-star facilities including an AA luxury hotel, leisure centre, Elemis day spa, tennis courts, a European Tour golf course, a brasserie and an award-winning restaurant. Places of interest locally include Pentillie Castle (the setting for the popular Sky 1 drama, Delicious) with its beautiful gardens and the venue for various events, various National Trust properties including Cothele House, The landmark of The Cheeswring on Bodmin Moor and the wide open spaces of the Dartmoor National Park are within an easy drive.

Nearby Cargreen provides facilities for the yachting fraternity and deep water moorings are available on the River Tamar through the yacht club and opposite the property at Weir Quay Boatyard. There are also a number of first class marina facilities on Plymouth waterfront. Saltash has a Waitrose Store on its northern outskirts. The quiet and sheltered beaches of the South Cornish coast at Whitsand Bay are within 12 miles. There is a Montessori Nursery at St Germans (8 miles) and independent schools at Tavistock and Plymouth, the city has a long and historic waterfront together with a mainline railway station (Plymouth to London Paddington 3 hours) and a cross channel ferry port with services to France and Northern Spain. International flights are available from Newquay and Exeter.

DESCRIPTION

Quay Cottage is the perfect tidal riverside retreat, on the banks of the wide River Tamar the property has an extraordinary outlook with a stunning and wide panorama over the river and the gorgeous unspoilt landscape of the Tamar Valley. A truly rare and unique opportunity and well suited to boating enthusiasts and nature lovers alike with an everchanging view with each change of the tide.

In our clients ownership for 39 years the traditional cottage has been well cared for and improved by our clients. The sash windows are a mix of hardwood and softwood windows with partial double glazing and electric heating.
