This development is sure to suit everyone. Not only is it ideal for professionals working in Maidenhead, it is also ideal for those commuting further afield to London, Reading, Slough or High Wycombe. Further to this, Belmont Park is also ideally situated for families seeking well-regarded schools.

The thriving market town of Maidenhead has so much to offer and plenty of open spaces to enjoy, including riverside walks, nature reserves and acres of commons and woodland. The town centre has an array of everyday amenities and independent and high street shops. Nearby are banks, hospitals, medical and veterinary centres and hairdressers. There's a variety of supermarkets, including a Sainsbury's superstore and a Waitrose & Partners within walking distance of Belmont Park. Maidenhead and the surrounding villages are home to an array of dining opportunities, from pubs and chain restaurants to independent eateries and Michelin starred venues. There are also cafés, bakeries and tea shops, a multiplex cinema and Braywick Leisure Centre.
