A three-bedroom home ideally located in Millom town centre, within easy walking distance of the train station and local shops. The property has undergone partial renovation, with some further work still required.

Inside, there is a spacious open-plan living and dining area, providing a versatile space for modern living. The ground floor also features a conveniently located bathroom.

Externally, the property benefits from a rear yard.

On approach, this slate-fronted home features a newly fitted uPVC door with decorative leaded glass panels, opening into an entrance hall with stairs to the first floor and an internal door leading into the open-plan lounge/dining room. This spacious area benefits from a large double window to the front and an additional window to the rear overlooking the yard, allowing for plenty of natural light.

The dining area leads through to the kitchen, where a range of wall and base units have been installed, although some finishing touches are still required—offering an excellent opportunity for buyers to personalise the space. Estate agents are required by law to check a buyers /sellers identity to prevent Money Laundering and fraud. You do have to produce documents to prove your identity or address and information on your source of funds. Checking this information is a legal requirement to help safeguard your transaction, and failing to provide ID could cause delays. Corrie and Co, outsource these checks to speed up the process.
