This substantial late Victorian stone-built semi-detached home offers impressive four-floor accommodation extending to nearly 3,000 sq ft, making it an excellent option for families seeking both space and character. Positioned on a substantial plot along a sought-after, tree-lined street in outer Leeds, the property offers excellent access into Leeds and surrounding amenities, whilst combining original charm with a modern, well-presented interior throughout.

The accommodation comprises four bedrooms, three bathrooms, two reception rooms and a spacious kitchen, alongside a highly versatile lower ground floor currently used as a gym, additional bathroom and utility space. The layout is ideal for families looking for flexible living and size without compromising on quality.

The ground floor features a bright and welcoming living room to the front, centred around a large bay window which fills the space with natural light. The room is finished with hardwood flooring and a contemporary fireplace, creating a comfortable and stylish setting. To the rear, the dining room offers another well-proportioned reception space, with dual aspect light, hardwood flooring and a further contemporary fireplace. From here, there is direct access out to the south-facing patio, providing a great connection between indoor and outdoor living.

The south-facing garden is a particularly attractive feature, offering a good balance of patio and lawn, ideal for day-to-day use, entertaining and making the most of the sun.

The kitchen sits to the rear and is fitted with modern high-gloss units, integrated appliances and ample space for dining, creating a practical and sociable hub of the home. From here there is also access down to the lower ground floor.

To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms. A particularly generous rear bedroom benefits from its own ensuite shower room. A further double bedroom sits to the front, whilst an additional room is currently used as a home office, finished with stylish two-tone décor and a dado rail, offering flexibility depending on requirements. The main house bathroom is also located on this level and is finished to a high standard, featuring both a freestanding bath and separate shower.

The top floor provides a superb principal suite, with a dormer window and additional roof lights creating a bright and airy feel. This level is further enhanced by a large eaves storage cupboard, currently used as a walk-in dressing space, adding to the practicality and sense of luxury. The bathroom on this floor is a real standout feature, finished to an exceptional standard with a beautifully considered design. It offers a freestanding bath, separate walk-in shower and twin jack-and-jill sinks, all brought together with high-quality tiling and a cohesive, contemporary finish, creating a space that feels truly unique and far beyond what is typically found.

The lower ground floor adds further flexibility, currently arranged as a gym space, utility area, additional bathroom and storage, providing valuable extra space beyond the main living accommodation.

Overall, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial family home offering generous accommodation, an impressive south-facing garden and a great balance of character and modern living throughout.
