ABOUT THE HOME

A charming period maisonette, combining a modern refurbishment with classical touches throughout. The property spans the ground floor with the large reception room found at the front of the property offering a great space for living or hosting. Following the hallway through the property the principle bedroom is located adjacent to the reception, which boasts a double bed, ample storage in the form of a chest of drawers and wardrobe as well as an original fireplace. Continuing through the property the second bedroom is located next to the kitchen, both of which have been recently furnished, with the kitchen presenting a stylish wood finish. At the rear of the property lies a family bathroom offering very easy access from the kitchen work space and the private garden which offers a great out door space.

Located on Renmuir Street, a residential yet well connected road with very close proximity to tooting overground station and within walking distance of tooting Broadway tube station.

Total area (approx.): 60.1 sq. m (646.9 sq. ft)
