

GROVE AVENUE, HANWELL

£1,150,000

A truly impressive halls-adjointing Edwardian residence, enviably positioned in one of Hanwell's most sought-after addresses. Extending to over 2,000 sq ft, this beautifully presented family home offers wonderfully light and generously proportioned accommodation arranged over three thoughtfully planned storeys. The ground floor is centred around a striking open-plan living, kitchen, dining space perfectly suited to modern family life and entertaining alike, complemented by a separate, more formal reception room. Further highlights include a versatile guest bedroom with en-suite shower room, useful utility room and a discreet cloakroom. Upstairs, the property continues to impress with four double bedrooms and a contemporary family shower room, all finished to an excellent standard. To the rear, a delightful westerly-facing garden provides a peaceful retreat and features a large two-roomed outbuilding, with the garden room offering excellent potential as a home office, studio or gym.
