Offered to the market with no onward chain, this substantial semi detached family home occupies a prime position on one of Hounslow's most sought after residential roads. Spanning in excess of 1,150 sq ft across two well appointed floors, together with a substantial outbuilding of over 300 sq ft, this three bedroom, two bathroom house presents an exciting opportunity for further extension (STPP).

The property opens into a welcoming entrance hallway, with a front reception room to the left and a spacious open plan reception/dining and kitchen to the rear, in addition to a convenient downstairs guest WC/shower room. Upstairs, there are three well proportioned bedrooms and a modern family bathroom.

Ideally located on Bulstrode Avenue, the property is just moments from Hounslow Central Underground Station (Piccadilly Line), offering swift access to Heathrow Airport and Central London.
