Occupying a prominent corner plot in one of Hove's most desirable residential locations, this substantial detached period residence offers exceptionally spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors, complemented by off-road parking, a courtyard garden, and an abundance of beautifully preserved original features.

Rich in character, the property showcases many hallmarks of its era, including high ceilings, original wooden flooring, feature fireplaces, and elegant bay windows. Generous room proportions and numerous dual-aspect windows create a wonderful sense of light and space throughout, making this a home that feels both grand and welcoming.

The heart of the property is undoubtedly the impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and entertaining space. The first floor hosts three generous double bedrooms, including a superb principal suite with en-suite shower room, alongside a well-appointed family bathroom. The second floor offers exceptional flexibility, comprising a further double bedroom and an additional reception room that could serve as a lounge, home office, studio or guest accommodation. This floor lends itself particularly well to multigenerational living, providing an ideal suite for older children, visiting relatives or an independent annexe-style arrangement.
