No Onward Chain. Perfectly positioned for enjoying the outdoors, this attractive home is just a short distance from picturesque Balderton Lake and a variety of lovely local walks. The property itself offers low maintenance gardens, creating an easy-to-manage home while placing nature and open space close at hand. Inside, the bow fronted living room provides a welcoming reception, while the modern refitted kitchen diner creates a stylish and practical hub for everyday life. A heated conservatory overlooks the rear garden, offering a versatile space to relax and enjoy the outlook throughout the seasons. Upstairs are three bedrooms, complemented by a contemporary wet room style shower room. The garage has been thoughtfully converted into a useful home office, currently used as a gym, providing valuable additional space for working from home, exercise or hobbies. Having undergone a programme of modernisation by the current owners, this turnkey home is ready to enjoy, combining contemporary comfort with a sought after location close to Balderton Lake, walks and local amenities.

LOCATION

Balderton village has a range of amenities including two primary schools and two secondary schools, a range of local independent shops and high street supermarkets, doctors surgery and local pubs. Newark Town Centre is approximately 2 miles away which offers further shops and leisure facilities and has excellent transport links.
