The Narth, Monmouth

This beautifully presented and thoughtfully converted four-double-bedroom family home is set on a generous 0.7-acre plot in a highly sought-after village, bordering picturesque ancient woodland. Over the past 8 years, the property has been fully renovated and future-proofed, including a complete re-wire, new plumbing system, boiler and water tank, ensuring peace of mind for years to come. Featuring an innovative split-level design, the home offers spacious open-plan living with abundant natural light and high-quality fixtures and fittings throughout. A private driveway leads to an attached double garage, with ample parking for multiple vehicles.

The property is traditionally constructed with a painted rendered exterior and inset uPVC double glazed windows and door set under pitched tiled roofs. Internal features include two wood burners, low voltage downlighters, moulded skirting boards and architraves, vertically boarded doors and a combination of carpeted and wood effect ceramic tiles. An oil-fired boiler provides domestic hot water and heating to radiators throughout.

OUTSIDE:

Tan Y Coed is accessed via quiet country lane and through a set of five bar wooden gates leading onto a tarmac driveway with space for multiple vehicles and supplying access to:

DOUBLE GARAGE: 5.81m x 2.72m (19'1" x 8'11")

Matching construction with a painted rendered exterior, a concrete base, sliding patio doors to back, external part glazed composite door to side and roller shutter garage door to the front. Currently used as a garage and for storing garden equipment, the space was previously used as multigenerational accommodation, complete with its own toilet facilities and provisions for a kitchenette, including plumbing.

GARDEN:

The beautifully landscaped grounds extend to approximately 0.7 acres, predominantly laid to lawn and wrapping around three sides of the property. There is convenient access to the rear ground along both sides of the home and from the front parking area, through ledged and braced door that opens into a stunning oak-framed covered loggia-elegantly connecting the main residence to the garage.

Adjacent to the dining area and sitting room, a raised seating terrace provides a perfect vantage point to take in the property's picturesque backdrop. The expansive gardens continue to unfold beyond, offering a high degree of privacy, enhanced by a variety of mature, well-spaced trees. At the heart of the garden lies a tranquil pond, bordered by a low stone wall, adding a peaceful focal point to the landscape.

Stone steps lead up to a generous L-shaped sun terrace, ideal for alfresco dining and entertaining, while enjoying scenic views of the adjoining ancient woodland. Discreetly positioned beside the garage is a practical area for bin and log storage. In addition to the ample parking available at the front, a gate from the rear garden opens to an alternative parking area, offering further convenience. The gardens are enclosed on all sides 6ft post and wire fencing.

SERVICES:

Mains electric and water. Oil fired central heating system and private drainage. Council Tax Band G. EPC D.

DIRECTIONS:

From Monmouth take the B4293 signposted Trellech and Chepstow, pass the turning for Penallt and over the brow take the left turning signposted 'Whitebrook and The Narth'. At the small crossroads, turn right into The Narth and follow the road through the village for approximately 1.2 miles where Tan Y Coed can be found on the left opposite a red phone box.
