A deceptively spacious detached home

A seaside home in a fabulous coastal setting, just a short stroll from Gurnard Green and Bay, Gurnard Sailing Club and the Esplanade. Offering flexible accommodation arranged over two floors, this spacious property is particularly well suited to multi-generational living, giving everyone their own space while retaining plenty of room to come together.

The accommodation includes three double bedrooms, two bathrooms, two reception areas, a kitchen and a lovely west-facing balcony with views towards the sea. The lower ground floor adds further flexibility and could work equally well for extended family, guests, teenagers or those looking for a degree of separation within the home.

With the beach and sailing on the doorstep and Cowes within easy reach, this is a home in a sought after location with potential to improve.

Interior

A covered storm porch leads into a reception hall, with stairs descending to the lower ground floor and access to the main living accommodation.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and wall units, integrated cooker and space and plumbing for additional appliances.

The main sitting room is an L-shaped space, generous in proportion and filled with natural light from a picture window. Also from here, sliding patio doors lead directly onto the west-facing balcony, creating a wonderful spot to sit and enjoy the sea views and evening sunsets.

This floor also has two comfortable double bedrooms, one enjoying a rear aspect and the other positioned to the front of the property. A bathroom completes this level, fitted with a bath and shower over, WC and wash hand basin.

The lower ground floor provides much potential to create further additional living area and is where the property's flexibility really comes into its own. Currently, a large open-plan reception room, incorporates a useful kitchenette area and could provide an excellent space for independent living, entertaining or accommodating family and guests. There is also useful under-stairs cupboard and a large area set back for storage.

The bedroom on this level is a generous double with plenty of space for furniture and storage, together with its own en-suite bathroom. T

NOTE: The store area would benefit from 'tanking' and further refurbishment.

Exterior

The property is approached via a fenced front garden, laid mainly to lawn with established planting, creating an attractive and private approach to the house.

To the rear, a private drive that is accessible for only a few properties, provides access to off-street parking and leads through to the rear of the property and the garage. There is a grassed area, which, with some thought and landscaping could provide more space for outdoor dining and entertaining.

Gurnard

Gurnard is a much-loved coastal village, renowned for its beach and iconic row of green beach huts, sailing community and wonderful views across the Solent, as well as the legendary Gurnard sunsets. Gurnard Bay is just a short stroll away, along with the Woodvale Hotel and pub, sailing club and Gurnard Press cafe, Village hall, Church and local convenience store. There are also many excellent walks in and around Gurnard, and a popular Village Meadow- a green space where villagers can get together to grow produce or exercise their dogs.

The Cowes Esplanade is also within easy reach, offering a lovely coastal route into Cowes and its array of independent shops, restaurants, cafés and yacht clubs. For those who enjoy sailing, walking, beach life or simply being close to the water, this is a particularly special part of the island.
