AN EXQUISITE STONE BUILT BARN CONVERSION

Nestled in the picturesque Dunsop Road, Newton In Bowland, this exquisite stone-built detached barn conversion, known as The Coach House, offers a unique blend of character and modern living. Spanning an impressive 2,745 square feet, this property boasts three spacious reception rooms, four well-appointed bedrooms, and three contemporary bathrooms, making it an ideal family home.

Built in 1900, The Coach House has been meticulously maintained and presents a harmonious mix of traditional features and modern comforts. The interior showcases stunning exposed beams, charming stone walls, and a feature stone staircase, all complemented by solid fuel stoves set in elegant fireplaces. The oak floors and hand-made oak skirting boards add a touch of sophistication, while underfloor heating and modern lighting ensure a warm and inviting atmosphere throughout.

Approached via a private road, the property offers ample parking for 4-5 cars, along with a detached double garage that includes a versatile playroom or office above, perfect for remote work or leisure activities. The beautifully landscaped rear garden features a patio, lawn, and vegetable garden, all of which adjoin open countryside, providing a serene outdoor retreat.

The location is truly exceptional, set within an Area of national landscape, with breath taking views across the Hodder Valley countryside making it a walkers paradise. The property is conveniently situated near Dunsop Bridge, Waddington, and Clitheroe, two award winning public houses and easy access to major transport links to Preston and Lancaster.

Viewing is essential to fully appreciate the charm and elegance of this remarkable home, which offers an abundance of indoor and outdoor space, making it the perfect country residence for those seeking tranquillity and sophistication.
