THE DWELLING

Originally three cottages, this remarkable property is steeped in history, with the oldest section dating back to circa 1500 and later additions from the 18th century. A particularly striking feature is the spiral staircase, with elements believed to date back to around 1300, offering a rare glimpse into medieval craftsmanship. The home beautifully blends period charm with generous, characterful spaces, featuring good ceiling heights amidst exposed beams.

Set within a substantial plot backing onto the Blackmore Vale countryside, the property enjoys a wonderful sense of privacy and tranquillity. A significant addition is the large stone-built outbuilding with a tiled roof, offering approximately 1,251 sq ft of space presenting an exciting opportunity for further development, subject to the necessary planning consents.

ACCOMMODATION

A spacious and grand central hallway sets a distinguished tone for the home, featuring exquisite plank and muntin oak panelling alongside beautiful flagstone flooring, showcasing the property's rich heritage.

The ground floor boasts two beautifully proportioned reception rooms, each positioned at either end of the property, both enjoying an abundance of natural light through dual-aspect windows adorned with charming window seats. The drawing room features a magnificent open fireplace with an imposing bressummer beam, offering a grand yet inviting focal point. A discreet secondary staircase provides direct access to the master suite, enhancing the home's unique charm.

Centrally positioned, the exquisite kitchen and dining room seamlessly blend timeless character with refined practicality. Sleek bespoke cabinetry is complemented by an electric AGA, elegantly set within a substantial inglenook, while a walk-in pantry provides additional storage. Beyond, a well-appointed utility room offers further cabinetry, ample space for white goods, and a rear access door. Completing the ground floor is a stylish shower room, thoughtfully designed for both comfort and convenience.

The first floor is accessed via a long hallway adorned with exposed beams, leading to four generously proportioned double bedrooms, as well as a convenient store and linen cupboard. Each bedroom enjoys a delightful southerly front aspect, bathing the rooms in natural light. The principal suite further benefits from a dual-aspect outlook, enhancing the sense of space and light, and features a charming open fireplace, adding to its character and warmth.

Bedroom two is further enhanced by bespoke built-in cabinetry, offering both practicality and style. The well-appointed family bathroom is conveniently located to serve all bedrooms, completing this first-floor arrangement.

GARDENS AND OUTBUILDINGS

A charming patio area, set adjacent to the property, provides an ideal space for outdoor entertaining and relaxation. This leads onto an expansive lawned garden, enclosed by an attractive stone wall and bordered with mature shrubs. Beyond the formal garden lies a substantial barn, featuring beautiful stone elevations beneath a tiled roof, with windows on either side allowing for an abundance of natural light. An additional attached barn, with its own separate access, provides further versatility and potential. From here, the grounds extend to a further lawned area, home to a delightful orchard, which enjoys a picturesque setting backing onto the serene waters of the River Cam.

To the front of the property, a sweeping driveway sits alongside a neatly manicured lawn, enclosed by an attractive stone wall and bordered by elegant box hedging. A charming pathway leads to the timber-framed front porch, creating a welcoming and picturesque entrance befitting this characterful home.
