

California Road, Mistley
£375,000

California Road

Step into the elegance of a bygone era, meticulously revived for contemporary living. This early 20th-century semi-detached home presents an exceptional opportunity for those taking their initial venture onto the property ladder, looking to downsize in style, or seeking the perfect family abode. A testament to the dedication of its current owners, this residence combines the charm of its historical origins with the comforts of modern refinement.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into an expansive hallway, replete with the flexibility to serve as an additional reception area, setting the tone for a home that marries form with function. The heart of the house, the living room, a warm and inviting space, is crowned by a characterful log burner and opens out onto the rear garden through elegant sliding doors, effortlessly blending indoor and outdoor living. A kitchen well planned and designed, adorned with oak worktops, awaits those with a penchant for culinary endeavours. A utility room conveniently positioned at the rear complements the kitchen, ensuring a practical flow of space.

Ascend the stairs to discover three well-proportioned bedrooms, with the third currently fashioned into a chic walk-in wardrobe and dressing room. The show-stopping family shower room boasts dual sinks and an indulgent walk-in shower, creating a spa-like sanctuary within the comfort of your own home.

Externally, the property boasts a secure, landscaped garden featuring both patio and lawn, ideal for tranquil relaxation or entertaining guests. A detached garage and workshop offer ample storage, while off-street parking – a rarity on this sought-after road – accommodates several vehicles.
