IF YOU LIVED HERE....

Laid out across one level, this is a home with an easy, practical flow. The reception room is generously sized and full of natural light, with plenty of space to arrange for both relaxing and dining, while the door out to the private balcony brings in an extra sense of openness.

The separate kitchen is well arranged for day to day living, with wraparound worktops, simple cabinetry and a handy breakfast bar for coffee or a quick bite to eat. The elevated position means you can enjoy lovely far reaching views while you cook, which gives the room a real sense of light and openness. Elsewhere, both bedrooms are comfortable doubles, finished in calm neutral tones, and the bathroom sits neatly off the hall.

Being on the top floor gives the apartment a pleasing sense of privacy, along with an open outlook. The balcony is a lovely extra, whether for a quiet coffee in the morning or a little fresh air at the end of the day, while the external bike storage adds useful practicality.

WHAT ELSE?

- Highams Park Station is moments away, and Epping Forest is just a short walk away when you want open green space close to home.
- Drivers can be on the North Circular in just a few minutes, or the M25 in about 15 mins.
- You've got some fantastic food and drink based perks nearby, including Vino Tap, The Stag & Lantern Micropub and the Time Out approved Good Friend Chinese Restaurant.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT....

"Around the corner from our E4 office are The Stag and Lantern and Vino Tap, known for their craft beers and natural wines. If you fancy a nice coffee pop into Biba & Wren Coffee Shop or pop over to Grace and Albert for anything gift or homeware related. My favourite local walk to where I live is through Epping Forest from Highams Park to Chingford Plains, ending at The Butlers Retreat. If you fancy a bike ride The Lea Valley is expansive and offers plenty of different routes in and out of London. The area is the perfect halfway house, offering all the benefits of London but with the green space and community feel of a countryside village! I also love the variety of different architecture on offer throughout E4".
