Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

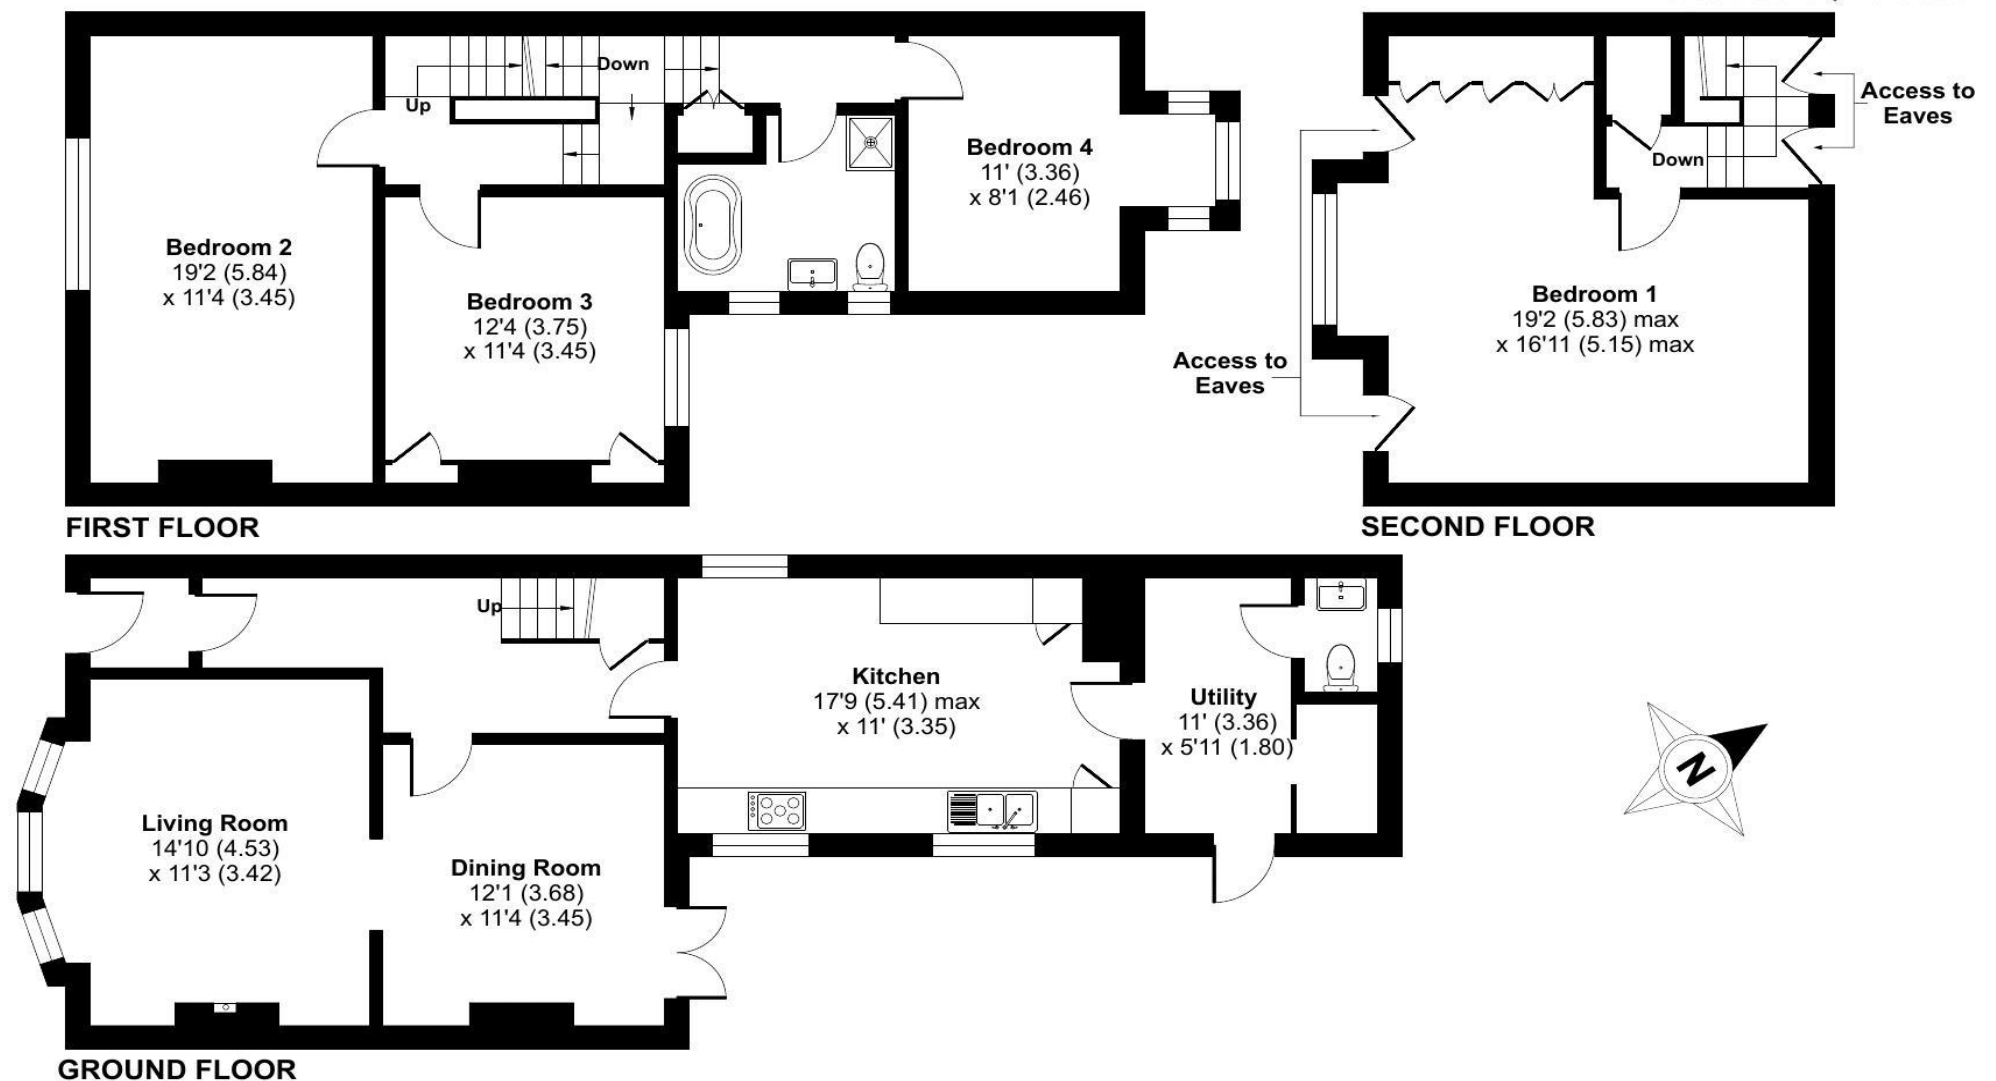

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

2 Sunny Bank is a mid-terraced three storey family home enjoying an elevated position and located within walking distance of the town centre offering four generous bedrooms, two reception rooms, a family bathroom and downstairs cloakroom.

The accommodation on offer briefly comprises; front door opening into the entrance porch with a further door into the hallway where stairs lead to the first-floor accommodation. To the front of the property there is a spacious sitting room with a wood burning stove and large bay window allowing for plenty of natural light to fill the room. Sitting centrally within the property is a dining room which provides plenty of space for everyday furnishings and has the added benefit of French doors leading out to the rear garden.

The kitchen/breakfast room offers a comprehensive range of matching wall and base units with contrasting worktops along with space for a range cooker and fridge/freezer. There is also an area set aside for a breakfast table and chairs. Adjoining the kitchen is a useful utility room with doors to both the downstairs cloakroom and the garden.

To the first floor there are three bedrooms; two of which are generous size doubles along with a good-sized single bedroom; all bedrooms are serviced by the modern family bathroom offering a four-piece suite. To the second floor there is a master bedroom fitted with a range of wardrobes along with wooden flooring and eaves access; this room enjoys a large dormer window with views to the front.

Externally the property is set back from the road with steps and a pathway leading to the front door. The main walled garden lies to the rear of the property and is laid to lawn with an area of patio ideal for sitting out and relaxing. On road parking can be found nearby.
