Elm Cottage

Elm Cottage is a well-presented three-bedroom end-terrace cottage in a quiet residential setting within the popular village of Goonhavern. The property has been sympathetically updated in the last few years while retaining much of its original cottage character, and is conveniently placed for Perranporth, Newquay and the North Cornish coast.

On entering the cottage, you are welcomed into the spacious dining room, which is open to the kitchen. The dining room/entrance hall has a lovely light and spacious feel, with an open ceiling rising to the first floor and a lovely gallery landing above. The living room leads off the dining room and has a fireplace with wood-burning stove, while there is also a double bedroom with en-suite bathroom on this floor.

Upstairs are two further bedrooms and a modern shower room, with the gallery landing overlooking the dining room below.

The property has benefited from a number of improvements, including a new electric boiler, high-efficiency immersion heater, replacement double glazing, triple glazed Velux windows, composite front door and stable-style rear door.

To the outside you have enclosed rear gardens as well as a front seating area, parking for two cars, a communal green, recently planted as a fruit orchard for residents to enjoy, providing a pleasant shared outdoor space.
