Beautifully presented, this first-floor character conversion is set along Maidenhead Riverside. The spacious living/dining room features a charming fireplace and opens onto a private balcony with impressive views. The property comprises two bedrooms with built-in storage, a separate kitchen with integrated appliances and a family bathroom. Additional benefits include a loft space providing extra storage, a garden shed and outdoor storage.

Externally, the home is approached via a private driveway providing extensive parking for multiple vehicles, alongside well-maintained communal grounds with generous lawned areas. Overlooking the picturesque riverside, the property offers mooring rights, immediate access to scenic walking paths and is within walking distance of Maidenhead town centre, Cookham and Maidenhead Train Station (Elizabeth Line), as well as a range of restaurants, local amenities and the Leisure Centre.
