Glen Vine Motor Museum Main Road, Glen Vine, Isle of Man, IM4 4BG

Formerly known as the Glen Vine Motor Museum, this substantial detached property now presents an exciting opportunity for purchasers seeking a spacious family home with significant potential, set in a highly convenient yet semi-rural location. Ideally positioned between Douglas and Peel, the property enjoys excellent connectivity while benefiting from open surroundings and a pleasant outlook.

The house offers generous and flexible accommodation arranged over two floors, comprising four bedrooms, two bathrooms and three well-proportioned reception rooms. The layout provides ample scope for reconfiguration or modernisation, making it perfectly suited to those looking for a project where value can be added through refurbishment and personalisation.

The reception spaces are a particular highlight, offering excellent room sizes and versatility for family living, entertaining or home-working. Bedrooms are well balanced, and the existing bathroom provision allows for future enhancement or reworking to suit modern requirements.

Externally, the property occupies a sizeable plot with extensive off-road parking, ideal for multiple vehicles, boats or trailers. To the rear is a large south-facing garden, enjoying excellent levels of natural sunlight throughout the day and offering significant potential for landscaping, outdoor entertaining or future extensions, subject to any necessary consents.

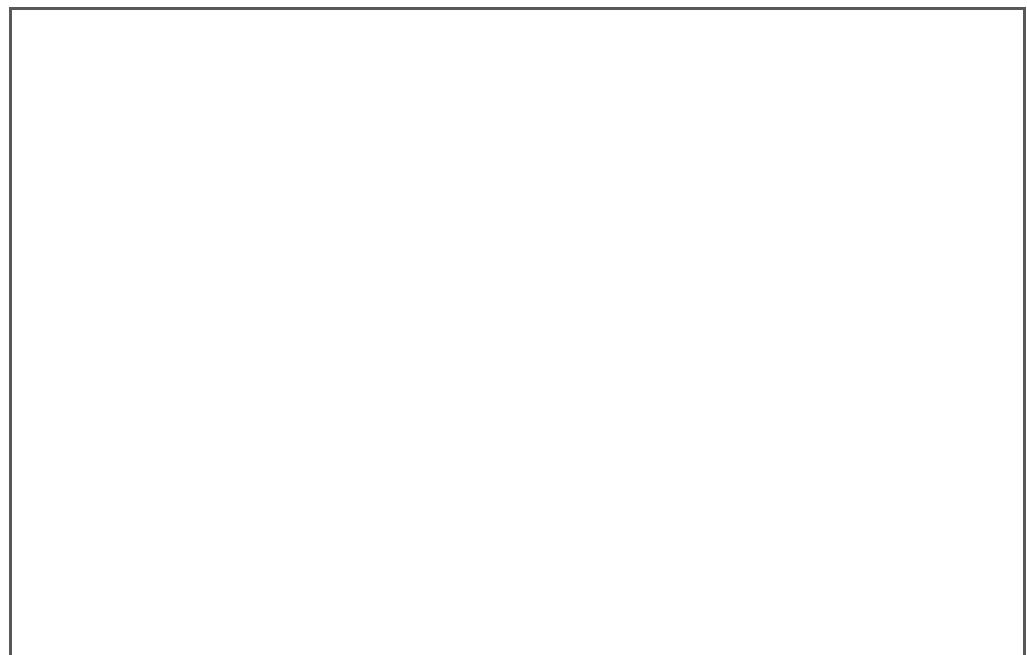

While the property would benefit from updating throughout, it offers strong fundamentals: scale, orientation, parking and location. Opportunities to acquire detached homes with this level of potential in Glen Vine are increasingly rare, particularly those that allow a purchaser to truly put their own stamp on a property.

A compelling proposition for developers, investors or owner-occupiers seeking a long-term home project in a popular and accessible part of the Isle of Man.
