Some homes offer more space. This one offers more freedom.

Set on one of Great Dunmow's most established residential roads, this substantial detached home provides over 2,300 sq ft of flexible accommodation, including a self-contained annexe. Designed to adapt as life changes, it offers generous living spaces, four double bedrooms, a stunning kitchen/family room and a landscaped garden ideal for entertaining and relaxing alike.

Whether you're accommodating extended family, working from home, hosting guests or simply looking for room to grow, this is a home that evolves alongside its owners. With no onward chain and a layout that balances togetherness with independence, it offers a lifestyle that is every bit as impressive as the space itself.
